

Project 3b: Tangibility of Representation

In Tangibility of Representation, the design saw pieces of tree barks in a different language than the spectators. It invites people to speculate the varieties of planes and how the illustrated surface is built and characterised. The characteristics of the textured natural material evokes a glorious pattern in glooming colour that would strike the observer to feel the curiosity of the tangibility.

■ Ang Shaw Hern, Clement Cheam,
Amalina Asilah Azmi & Nur Azizah Sawi